New York, Nov. 6.—Only the uncertainty of a few close states whose electoral vote in no way can affect the election of Wilson and Marshall, specturation over the popular vote of the three presidential candidates, and the complexion of legislatures that will name United States senators, held increase training to the final presures of congress will be as follows: terest tonight in the final returns of congress will be as follows: yesterday's general election.

Twelve Electoral Votes for Taft. The total of the republican electora column apparently was fixed at 12 votes of Idaho, Utah and Vermont; but the feoting of the Wilson and Roos-velt columns flickered alternately during the afternoon and night, as late returns from Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, South Dakota and Wyoming gave in-dications of change from the results accepted last night.

Wilson Sure of 387 Votes.

On the basis of the latest returns Delaware early in the evening, with the vote of Florida Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, South Dako-ta and Wyoming placed in the "doubt-ful" column, President-elect Wilson ful" column, President-elect Wilson has 387 certain votes in the electoral college, Colonel Roosevelt 89 and President Taft 12. All doubtful states except South Dakota gave more or less certain indications during the night of landing in the list of Wilson electoral votes, while South Dakota's returns showed a general trend toward a Roosevelt plurality. Roosevelt plurality. Woman Suffrage in Four More States, Minnesota 10

A bye-phase of the general election that became known today was the success of woman's suffrage in four of the five states where constitutional amendments were submitted to the people. The victory of the women was complete in Kansas, Arizona and Michigan; late returns from Oregon indicated they had succeeded there also, while from Wiscensin came re-turns showing the decisive defeat of the equal suffrage proposal.

Popular Vote Not Determined.

Pepular Vote Not Determined.

Estimates of the popular vote polled by Governor Wilson ranged through many millions during the day. Wilson May Not Have Popular Vote. Assertions were made today from several quarters where an effort had been made to gather preliminary popular vote figures, that Governor Wilson had not secured a majority of the votes cast throughout the country. Estimates ranged from a small majority of all votes to figures nearly 1,000,000 below a majority. Still Counting in Iowa and Minnesota. Governor Wilson had the better of the situation in lowa and Minnesota, where the counting still was in progress tonight, with but a narrow marin between the candidates, while fouth Dakota, still a doubtful state, apparently had turned toward Roose-welt on the later returns.

WILSON MAY HAVE 400. South Dakota and Wyoming Have Probably Gone Democratic.

New York, Nov. 7 .- Returns up to s late hour last night seemed to assure Wilson and Marshall of 400 votes in the electoral college. Iowa and Kan-sas, which with Minnesota, South Dakots and Wyoming, were in the doubt-ful column during the day, seemed almost sure tonight to swell the demtotal in the final alignment of states. Possibilities of a further gain remained for Wilson through the accession of Wyoming, in which state

Wilson Pleases London Papers

ELECTION REGARDED AS LOW PARIFF VICTORY.

A DEFINITE MISSION

News Declares American People Entrusted It With "Regenerated Party" -Other Foreign Comments.

London, Nov. 7.—The chief interest in the American presidential election for England is its relation to the tariff. Tariff reform is one of the leading is-sues in British politics. The liberal papers hall the democratic success as a great victory for low tariff which is certain to have an influence in Eng-land.

A Definite Mission.

The Dally News says:
"That the democratic party should return to office after 15 years in the wilderness is nothing. What matters is that it is a regenerated party which has returned entrusted by the Ameri-can people with a definite mission and led by a man who has character and intellect to carry the mission through."

More College Men in Politics. The News thinks that Woodrow Wil-on's election should stimulate all men of the American universities, which are more national and democratic than the English, to participate in politics.

Taft Controlled by Bosses. The Morning Post says:
"The significance of the election lies n the fact that the people were dis-atisfied with the Taft administration, which was too much controlled by the bosses, but were not ready to accept the advanced Roosevelt programme."

No Violent Hands on Tariff. The Express says: "Mr. Wilson's success depends upon the degree to which he can raise en-thusiasm for politics in hitherto apa-thetic quarters. He will not lay vio-lent hands on the tariff."

American People Dissatisfied. "What emerges most significantly from the election," says the Chronicle "is that the majority of the American people have awakened to keen dissat-isfaction with things as they are; that a great forward surge is agitating the mighty mass; that although to some its purposes may be confused, to some its battles still fought in the night, if there is enough will and vitality in the gigantic nation to carry it forward to final victory."

Declares Party Will Still Exist

PRESIDENT HAS PLANS FOR STRENGTHENING IT

AS ACTIVE AS IN PAST

Believes Its Chances For Future Success Are Good-Says Wilson Will Face a Congress of Untried Men.

Columbus, O., Nov. 6 .- Defeated but far from discouraged, President Taft already has formed plans for holding together and strengthening the republican party. The plans are indefinite, but he declared tonight to friends who accompanied him north from Cincinnath, that the party will continue to exist; and that it will be as active in the past and that there is no reason to believe that its chances of future success were not excellent. So far as the president's plan is concerned, he hopes to see organized a "National Republican club," entirely apart from the republican national committee, which shall cherish the principles of the party and be a source of politica activity not only during election years but at all times. The president spoke of the Republican club of New York, the Hamilton club of Chicago, and other organizations similar in char-acter and expressed the belief that through these clubs interest and logalty could be kept alive. Will Return to Practice of Law. To a suggestion that he might b the republican party's nominee in 1916, the president replied with a smile, but made no comment. He laughingly reeated his intention of returning t Incinnati and the practice of law.

The president is convinced that the task of President-elect Wilson will not be easy. He said tonight that he earn-estly hoped Mr. Wilson would not call an extra session of congress to revise the tariff. He wished, he said, to see the present prosperity continue as long A Congress of Untried Men. Mr. Taft declares that Mr. Wilson would face a congress made up to a large extent of untried men who have come to believe in "histrionic public-ity," and who believed that to show their faith with the people, they must at times be "insurgents" and oppose the programme of the leaders.

The president was particularly interested in any tariff revision programme, and laughed when he said he was eagerly awaiting the democrati-
